FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 16, 2007

Lexington, Va. – Sigma Nu Fraternity has received unconfirmed information that a member of our Theta Xi Chapter at Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Va., was among those students wounded in today’s campus shooting.

We are working with our student members in an effort to verify this information. We hope to establish contact with appropriate University officials in this regard on Tuesday.

Our prayers and condolences are with the families of those who have lost loved ones in this senseless tragedy. We pray for the healing of those wounded. Our heart goes out to the greater Virginia Tech family and Blacksburg community at this time of inexplicable loss. We will continue to support the members of our Theta Xi Chapter.

Headquartered in Lexington, Va., Sigma Nu Fraternity was founded in 1869 at Virginia Military Institute in Lexington and currently has more than 180 active chapters and colonies on college campuses throughout North America.
