

CONTACT:
Brad Beacham
Fifth Point Properties, LLC
540.463.1869

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 31, 2010

Lexington, Va. – The Board of Managers of Fifth Point Properties, LLC, a national real estate company, announced that Chief Operating Officer and President, Stephen E. Ratterman, Sr., is leaving the company to pursue other professional opportunities. Steve will complete his employment with Fifth Point on March 31, 2010.

For more than four years, Steve has provided executive leadership for Fifth Point Properties as the company experienced significant growth. “We are grateful for Steve’s tireless work for Fifth Point and for his many years of service to Sigma Nu,” said Fifth Point Chairman Timothy C. Huffmyer. “We wish Steve the very best in his new endeavors.”

Huffmyer noted that Ratterman’s experience and knowledge will still be available to Fifth Point in the coming months through a consulting agreement between Ratterman’s new enterprise, CSL Management, LLC, and Fifth Point.

Brad Beacham will assume responsibility for executive management of Fifth Point. Beacham also serves as Executive Director of Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc. Nick Murphy will continue to serve as Fifth Point’s Chief Financial Officer and Justin Wenger will manage Fifth Point’s property and administrative functions.

Fifth Point Properties, LLC, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc. and has real estate interests on or near more than 15 college campuses throughout the United States.

###