

CONTACT:

Nathaniel Clarkson, Director of Communications
Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc.
(540) 463-1869

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 15, 2011

Lexington, Va. - Sigma Nu Fraternity is pleased to announce that Executive Director Brad Beacham (Texas Christian) was elected as president-elect of the Fraternity Executives Association (FEA) on July 9, during the annual meeting of the Association in Chicago. Brad's one-year term as president of the FEA will begin in July 2012.

Regent Robert E. Durham (Georgia) said, "All of us at Sigma Nu are extremely proud of Brad and his service with the FEA. His election is not only a reflection of the high regard Brad's peers have for him, but also the high regard they have for Sigma Nu. Having attended numerous interfraternity meetings with Brad the last few years, I can tell you he is clearly a thought leader and respected voice among Fraternity executives."

Brad has worked for the Fraternity's staff team since graduating from Texas Christian University in 1990. His service as Executive Director began in 1997 and he has served on the FEA's board of directors since 2009. Brad has held leadership positions in other interfraternal organizations including the North American Interfraternity Conference and FIPG, Inc., the leading risk management association for Greek organizations, of which he is a past board member and past president.

Sigma Nu Fraternity has a long history of interfraternal leadership, locally and nationally, including two past presidents of the FEA: Brother M.E. "Mo" Littlefield (Maine), 1989-1990, and Brother Richard R. "Dick" Fletcher (Penn State), 1969-1970. The Fraternity encourages and supports its members in holding interfraternal leadership positions to influence a successful future for the greater Greek community. Sigma Nu was a founding member of the Fraternity Executives Association, the North American Interfraternity Conference and FIPG, Inc.

The Fraternity Executives Association is the professional association of men's and women's fraternity executives. It is dedicated to the common interests of its members and promotes, supports and encourages the free exchange of ideas relating to college fraternal organizations.

Other members of the FEA's board of directors are Larry Stanton Wiese of Kappa Alpha Order, President; Mark S. Briscoe of Sigma Pi Fraternity, Secretary-Treasurer; Betsy Sierk Corridan of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, Director; Cari F. Cook of Delta Delta Delta Fraternity, Director; and Mark E. Timmes of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity, Immediate Past President.

Sigma Nu Fraternity, headquartered in Lexington, Virginia, was founded at Virginia Military Institute in 1869 and has chapters and colonies on 177 college and university campuses in North America.

###