

Faculty Biographies

Michael Barry (Georgia)

Michael is a partner with the law firm Arnall Golden Gregory LLP where he Co-Chairs the Firm's national health care team and leads the Firm's national Hospital, Health System, and Institutional Provider team. Michael specializes in mid-market corporate transactions and the healthcare industry. A frequent industry speaker and author, he represents hospitals, health systems, and other institutional healthcare providers, as well as general counsel to mid-size businesses in all industries. Michael was a member of Leadership Georgia 2005 and currently serves as an Emeritus Member of the UGA Terry College of Business Alumni Board. In 2008, he was recognized as the University of Georgia's Terry College of Business Outstanding Young Alumnus.

Michael received his BBA in Finance from the University of Georgia in 1993 where he was a member of Mu Chapter – the oldest continually operating Sigma Nu Chapter in the nation. While at UGA, he served as Commander and IFC Treasurer. He received his law degree at UGA in 1996 and his Executive MBA from UGA in 2005. Michael is a Past-President of the Mu Chapter House Corporation and currently serves as a co-advisor to Mu Chapter. He previously served as the Chairman of Task Force Hopkins and has helped organize and operate the Southeastern National Recruiting Day. He is a member of Peachtree Presbyterian Church and UGA's Gridiron. Michael enjoys UGA football, international travel, and new venture development. Michael and his wife, Melanie, live in Atlanta, Ga.

Tim Braddick (Cincinnati)

Tim graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 2005 with a degree in Criminal Justice and focus on law enforcement and addiction studies. Tim served the Eta Lambda Chapter as Marshal, Lt. Commander, and Commander. He served on IFC and was also a member of Phi Rho Chi honorary fraternity.

Tim is currently a Division Commander for the Fraternity's Mid-Atlantic Beta Division. He served the General Fraternity staff team from 2005 – 2020, including terms as Leadership Consultant (2005), Director of Risk Reduction (2006) and, most recently, as the Director of Fraternal Operations (2007).

Tim lives in Lexington, Va. with his family. In his spare time, he enjoys watching sports, exercising, and cooking. He is an avid college football fan and actively follows the Cincinnati Bearcats and Ohio State Buckeyes. He recently completed his second marathon and set a new personal record. Professionally, Tim works as a loan originator for Wells Fargo Home Mortgage.

Jason Dooley (Kennesaw State)

Jason Dooley was initiated into the Iota Pi Chapter at Southern Polytechnic State University in 1996 (the institution has since merged with and assumed the name of Kennesaw State University). It was there he received his Bachelor of Science in industrial engineering technology. During his time at SPSU he served his chapter as Commander, Marshal, Chaplain, and IFC Representative. Following graduation, he served as an advisor to his chapter, and he was instrumental in restoring the Iota Pi Alumni Chapter. He currently serves as member of the Iota Pi Housing Corporation and as Recorder of the Iota Pi Alumni Chapter.

At the national level, Jason has served the Fraternity as Division Commander of the Southeast Alpha Division since 2004 and was recognized as Division Commander of the Year in 2011, 2016, and 2019. Jason is a recipient of the 2018 North American Interfraternity Conference (NIC) Advisor Award of Distinction. He has served on numerous Grand Chapter committees including Elections, Credentials, Finance, and Nominations. In addition to his Division Commander duties, Jason is currently serving as a member of Task Force Hopkins and on the College of Chapters faculty since 2012.

College of Chapters Faculty Biographies

Professionally, Jason is an Industrial Engineering Manager at UPS in Atlanta. He has held several management positions at the corporate and local level at UPS since 2000. In his free time Jason enjoys playing softball, traveling, and scuba diving.

Craig Frazier (Oklahoma State)

Craig is a healthcare executive with extensive operational leadership experience in academic and private hospitals and health systems and is board-certified in healthcare administration. As a student, he served Epsilon Epsilon Chapter in the roles of Recorder and Scholarship Chairman, as well as held leadership positions in various campus and honorary organizations.

Craig is the Chapter Advisor for Gamma Beta Chapter (Northwestern) and serves as Chairman for the Alumni Advisory Board. Additionally, Craig has served on the Finance Committee in the past three Grand chapters. Craig is active at the community level in Chicago, serving on the executive board for his neighborhood association and on his district's court advocacy program.

Bill Geddy (Georgia Southern)

Bill Geddy began serving as a Voting Director in 2021 and has been active in the Sigma Nu Educational Foundation since the mid-90s. He is the VP of Sales & Marketing for RPI Consultants, a mid-sized Technology & Management consulting firm headquartered out of Baltimore, MD. He has 20+ years in Sales Leadership in this industry, but previously served as US Army Field Artillery Officer and retired after 23 years of service.

His alma mater is Georgia Southern University, where he remains active with the University, Athletic Foundation, and his chapter, Theta Kappa. He serves as the Southeast Beta Division Commander (South Georgia & Florida), as well as the chairman of the Theta Kappa Alumni Advisory Board, where he has served with numerous other alumni to advise the chapter since 2008. After serving as Commander during the house fundraising from 1986-88 (built in 1988-89), Bill, as an alumnus, worked with an alumni team in the early 2000s to raise money to retire the note of the Theta Kappa House and make it debt free. Additionally, he is a noted Sigma Nu speaker, facilitator on Alumni Advisory Boards/Alumni Relations, and has served as a facilitator for College of Chapters since 2016.

Bill was recognized as Sigma Nu Chapter Advisor of the Year for 2013-2014 and Alumni of the Biennium in 2012-2014. He has attended 6 Grand Chapters (all of the Grand Chapters since 2012) and has served on the Credentials Committee for the past 4 Grand Chapters, serving as Chairman in 2018 and 2021. Bill lives in Macon, GA with his wife, Meg (a college professor); their daughter (Elizabeth) lives in Atlanta.

Neil Gilpin (Oklahoma State)

Neil is a CPA in Tulsa, Okla. He has worked for the same firm since graduating from Oklahoma State University in May of 1980. Conklin, Gilpin & Wertz, PLLC, is a mid-size local public accounting firm that provides audit, tax, and other accounting services.

Neil has volunteered in various roles for the Epsilon Epsilon Chapter at Oklahoma State University over the past 28 years, including as Chapter Advisor, Treasurer for the House Corporation, and Chairman of two major fundraising projects. He is currently serving on the House Corporation Board, as Chairman of the Alumni Advisory Board, and on the fundraising committee to raise $12 million for the new Epsilon Epsilon chapter home. At the national level, Neil has served as a Division Commander, Grand Marshal, and as a member of Task Force Hopkins. Neil was the recipient of the 2004 House Corporation Officer of the Year Award and the 2016 Alumnus of the Biennium Award. In his free time, Neil enjoys OSU sporting events, playing golf, and being involved with his church.

Rob Grabowski (Alabama)

Rob is a Senior Analyst at The Home Depot in the internal audit & consulting group called the Assurance and Advisory Management Program (AMP). Rob has been with The Home Depot for 1.5 years and works on a variety of business projects, providing detailed analyses that unearth potential failing systems and processes.

Rob received his MBA from the University of Georgia (2020) and served as the House Dad for the Mu Chapter home during his time there. Before that, he was a Leadership Consultant for Sigma Nu Fraternity for 2 years after graduating from his alma mater - The University of Alabama (2016).

While at Alabama, Rob was involved in a variety of leadership roles including Commander and Social Chairman for the Theta Chapter of Sigma Nu. He believes his experience with Sigma Nu, at the collegiate and national level, were both enriching and foundational steps in his career. Rob spends his free time exercising at F3 workouts, fly fishing, and seeing live music.

Chris Graham (Lamar / Stephen F. Austin / Houston / Southern Methodist)

Chris was initiated into the Zeta Psi Chapter at Lamar University in 1987, where he served as Chaplain and Treasurer. While serving as Treasurer, he worked with alumni leadership to reform the housing corporation and turn over the management of the house to the corporation. Chris graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in computer science and was recognized as the highest-ranking male graduate at the Fall 1990 commencement.

After graduating, he continued to assist the chapter before being appointed as Chapter Advisor from 1993 to 2010. He also served as president of the Zeta Psi Housing Corporation from 1997 to 2010. In 2004, he was appointed as the South Central Division Commander. As Division Commander, Chris was very involved with the colonization and eventual re-charterings of the chapters at Stephen F. Austin State University, the University of Houston, and Southern Methodist University. He has served on the Chapter Eternal and Ritual Committees of the Grand Chapter and was the Chairman of the Appeals and Grievances Committee in 2016, 2018, and 2021. Chris also recited, from memory, the Preamble to the Creed of Sigma Nu at the 2014 and 2018 College of Chapters and the 2014 Grand Chapter. Chris was awarded the Chapter Advisor of the Year in 2007 and received the Division Commander of the Year award in 2010, 2014, 2017, and 2018.

Chris is married to Amy, his wife of 22 years, and they have one son, Nate, who is 21. Chris had the honor of serving on the Ritual team as Commander for the initiation of Nate in October 2021.

Chris and Nate are motorsports enthusiasts, especially NASCAR and winged sprint cars, attending several races at tracks all over America. Chris also plays golf occasionally and enjoys spending time with family and friends. Chris has worked for ExxonMobil for 31 years in various roles, currently in ExxonMobil Research and Engineering as a Control Systems Engineer.

Dr. Jamison Keller (Cal State San Bernardino)

Jamison is the Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life at Georgia Institute of Technology. Prior to moving to Atlanta, he served as the Fraternity/Sorority Advisor at California State University, Northridge (CSUN) for seventeen years. Within Sigma Nu, Jamison served his chapter as Commander, Lt. Commander, Recorder, and IFC Delegate. He also served the Fraternity as Division Commander for the Southwest Alpha division in Southern California for fourteen years. He was honored as Sigma Nu's Greek Advisor of the Year in 2007 and as the Division Commander of the Year in 2013. He has facilitated at numerous College of Chapters, LEAD Institutes, and at eight Grand Chapters. He is badge #81 in the Omega Society, proudly sponsoring the upkeep of our Headquarters shrine, and started his chapter's Educational Foundation Scholarship.

College of Chapters Faculty Biographies

Jamison has also served as the Director of Educational Programs for the Western Region Greek Association and as the Vice President of the Association of Fraternity/Sorority Advisors. Jamison travels the country consulting various fraternity and sorority communities on behalf of CAMPUSPEAK, the NIC, and with many of his own programs. Jamison is a contributing author in the books "Brotherhood" and "Glee & New Directions for Social Change." He also sits on the Southern Regional Greek Leadership Association Board.

Jamison earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Cal State San Bernardino (Lambda Chi Chapter, Badge #43), his master's degree at Azusa Pacific, and a doctorate from the University of Southern California. His research interests include learning communities, equity and inclusion, social capital theory, and leadership development.

Dr. Sean Patrick Killion (Jefferson)

Dr. Killion is the Interim Director for Housing Operations at Temple University. He is an active volunteer of the Mid-Atlantic Association of College and University Housing Officers (MACUHO), where he has served in multiple positions, including President, and has been honored with multiple awards by the association. Dr. Killion is also involved with the Association of College and University Housing Officers International (ACUHO-I) and serves on the Board of Directors of Archbishop Ryan High School, serving as the Board Secretary and Chairman of the Enrollment Management Committee.

In addition to his professional affiliations, Dr. Killion serves as the Division Commander for the Northeast Beta Division. He was recognized by the Fraternity as Division Commander of the Year in 2003 and 2007 and as the 2006-2008 Alumnus of the Biennium. Dr. Killion is also a donor to the Sigma Nu Educational Foundation and a member of the Omega Society.

Dr. Killion graduated from Philadelphia College of Textiles and Sciences in 1998 with a degree in Business Administration, received his Master of Business Administration from LaSalle University in 2005, and graduated with his Doctor of Education in Education Leadership and Policy Studies from Temple University in May 2015. Dr. Killion teaches as an Adjunct Professor at Jefferson University's School of Business and Temple University's Fox School of Business. Dr. Killion is a founding father of the Mu Pi Chapter and 1998 was recognized by the Fraternity with the Man of the Year and Alpha Alumni Chapter Affiliate awards. He has been happily married to his wife, Stacy, for over 21 years; they live in Philadelphia with their daughter, Shanna Kathleen.

Drew Logsdon (Western Kentucky)

Drew is the Director of Communications for the Higher Ed Division of TogetherWork, which includes the companies OmegaFi, Pennington & Company, and Acceptd. As the Director of Communications, he oversees branding, media relations, and editorial calendars across the division. Prior to his role at TogetherWork, Drew served the General Fraternity for 10 years as a Leadership Consultant, Associate Director of Risk Reduction, Associate Director of Communications, and Director of Communications.

Drew graduated from Western Kentucky University with a B.A. in Political Communication and is an alumnus of the Eta Rho Chapter where he served as Eminent Commander, Lt. Commander, Treasurer, and Recruitment Chairman. He's a past President of the Fraternity Communications Association, past member of the WKU Alumni Association Board of Directors, and Philanthropy & Community Service advisor for the Eta Rho Chapter. Drew currently lives outside Nashville, Tenn. with his two kids and wife, Jenni. When he's not criticizing font choices on websites, Drew enjoys rucking, working out with his local F3 group, spending time with his family, and cheering on his WKU Hilltoppers.

Alex Taylor (Huntingdon)

Alex is the Project Manager for Dietitians On Demand, a nationwide nutrition staffing firm based in Richmond, Va. In his role, he manages bringing new product lines to market and leading new changes within the company. Alex also served the General Fraternity for five years as a Leadership Consultant and Director of Expansion and Recruitment.

Alex graduated from Huntingdon College in 2012 and is a founding member of Sigma Nu's Nu Beta Chapter. While at Huntingdon, Alex was a member of the Men's Basketball, Cross Country, and Lacrosse teams. He was involved in various leadership roles in the chapter and on campus, including Treasurer for Nu Beta Chapter and IFC President.

Locally, Alex serves as Alumni Advisory Board Chairman for the Nu Beta Chapter, and volunteers for several fraternity and sorority chapters in Virginia. Alex, his wife Alli, and their daughter Arlee, live in Richmond, Va. where they are involved in numerous areas of the community. In his free time, Alex is an avid runner, when he's not running after his daughter.

Matt Tudor (Eastern Kentucky)

Matt is an alumnus of the Rock Award-winning Theta Theta Chapter at Eastern Kentucky University. He received his B.S. in Homeland Security; his M.S. in Safety, Security, and Emergency Management; and has spent over a decade in domestic law enforcement. Matt is a U.S. Army combat veteran and currently works for the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation.

Matt served the Theta Theta Chapter in many roles, including Recorder and Commander. He was appointed as a Collegiate Grand Councilman in 2012 and led his chapter to receive their first ever Rock Award later that year. Matt is an Alpha Alumni Chapter Affiliate and has served the last four Regents of Sigma Nu as Grand Marshal.

Jordan Wu (Cal Poly Pomona)

Jordan is a 2001 graduate with a degree in public relations and a minor in marketing. While attending Cal Poly Pomona, Jordan served in several campus activities including Orientation Services, Public Relations Student Society of America, AmeriCorps, IFC, Greek Council, and as a Resident Advisor.

As a brother of the Kappa Gamma Chapter, Jordan served as Commander, Lt. Commander, Social Chairman, and as a Collegiate Grand Councilman. He received "Man of the Year" three years in a row from his chapter. He previously served a term as Division Commander from 2007 to 2014, was recognized in 2009 as the Division Commander of the Year and participated on Task Force Hopkins. He most recently served as Vice Regent on the High Council from 2014-2018. After completing two terms on the High Council, Jordan is delighted to be serving once again as a Division Commander.

In his spare time, he enjoys spending time with his wife, Shamim (Zeta Tau Alpha) and daughters, Leila and Alina. On the weekends, he can be spotted riding around town on his Harley Heritage Springer - the "other" love of his life.